One of the things that has stood out to me about the reviews has been people's assertions that they “almost exclusively use Photoshop for photo editing at work.” The vague wording allowed for a lot of interpretation. For one, it is possible they edit all kinds of photos in Photoshop; but I have a hard time believing that in the real world. IMAGE: A quick comparison of Adobe Photoshop for iPad Pro (left) and Adobe Photoshop CC on the Master Collection (right). The one on the right is equivalent in behavior to the iPad Pro natively (left). Share for Review: A new collaborative feature that lets you validate images you sent to other team members via email and enable others to easily provide input for images they create.
